

THE FUKUOKA
ASIAN CULTURE PRIZES

The 18th Fukuoka Asian Culture Prizes 2007 Academic Prize

Srisakra VALLIBHOTAMA

Member, Executive Board of Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn Anthropology Centre
Born June 2, 1938 (age: 69)
Thailand

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

- 1938 Born in Bangkok, Thailand
- 1960 Obtained B.A. (English and French) from Chulalongkorn University
- 1961-1971 Lecturer in Thai History, Faculty of Archaeology, Silpakorn University
- 1971 Obtained M.A. (Anthropology) from University of Western Australia, Australia
- 1971-1972 Visiting Lecturer, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Faculty of Social Sciences, Chiang Mai University
- 1972-1977 Lecturer in Thai Studies, Graduate School, Silpakorn University
- 1974- Chief Editor of Muang Boran Journal, a quarterly academic publication
- 1977 Head of Department of Anthropology, Faculty of Archaeology, Silpakorn University; Chief Social Scientist to Sukhothai Historical Park Development Project conducted by Department of Fine Arts, Ministry of Education in conjunction with UNESCO
- 1980 Visiting Professor, Southeast Asian Program, Cornell University, U.S.A.
- 1986 Visiting Scholar, Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University, Japan
- 1986-1998 Associate Professor of Anthropology; Head of Department of Anthropology, Silpakorn University
- 1989-1996 Honorary Chairman, Sub-committee for Cultural Research in Central Thailand, Office of National Cultural Commission (present Ministry of Culture)
- 1995- Senior Consultant, Lek-Prapai Viriyapant Foundation
- 1996 Senior Research Scholar, Thailand Research Fund
- 2001- Member, Executive Board of Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn Anthropology Centre
- 2002 Received Honorary Ph.D. (Anthropology) from Silpakorn University
- 2005 Received Honorary Ph.D. (Anthropology) from Walailak University

MAJOR WORKS

'The Kingdom of Ayutthaya in Thai History' [in Thai] in the Social Science Review Quarterly, Special Issue, Social Science Association of Thailand, Bangkok, June 1967.

Our Kingdom: Ayutthaya [in Thai], 1984 (7th edition, 2005).

'Political and Cultural Continuities at Dvaravati Sites' [in English] in Southeast Asia in the 9th to the 14th Centuries, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore, Research School of Pacific Studies, Australian National University, Canberra, 1986.

'Meru: A Symbol of Continuity and Change in Thai Society' [in English] in Asian Peoples and their Cultures: Continuity and Change, Seoul National University Press, Seoul, 1986.

The Significance of Buddha Relics Stupas in Thailand [in Thai], Muang Boran Press, Bangkok, 1990.

A Northeastern Site of Civilization: New Archaeological Evidence to Change the Face of Thai History [in Thai], 1990 (4th edition, 2001).

Siam: Thailand's Historical Background from Prehistoric Time to Ayutthaya [in Thai], 1991.

A Search into the Ancient Cities: A Collection of Articles from Muang Boran Journals (1974-1993) [in Thai], Muang Boran Press, Bangkok, 1995.

Socio-cultural Development in Thai History [in Thai], Amarin Printing Group, Bangkok, 2001.

The Cradle of Civilization: the Thai Peninsular [in Thai], 2003.

Iron: "Revolutionary Metal" in 2500 Years Ago – The Iron Era of Thailand, Development of Technology and Society [in Thai], 2005.

*The titles without name of publisher and publication place are by Matichon Press in Bangkok.